ASIATIU BOYCOTTS.

Latest advices from India report that the agitation aroused by the ordinance regarding the partition of Bengal is growing in intentity. Following the example of the Ohiness, who have recently emerged with notes from their boycot of American goods, the Bengalis and especially the student class have declared aboycott of Enthis good which fit is information given to the British Press is correct, has assumed rather dangerous the information given to the British I correct, has assumed rather dange oportions. Numbers of the lower ch propertions. Numbers of the lower classes have joined the attelants in assaulting or in-sulting, persons supported of buying British goods in definee of the interdired which have been supported by a section of the priesty casta, and the police, after quelley, watching the growth of the movement, have been at last compelled to intervene to protect Empresans and natives from assault. It is impossible to say a yet whether the movement is purely Bengali and, from the religious aida Hidad or whether it has combined the various races and religious of the province in an anti-governmenta spitation. So far as we can judge its leaders are Hindus by religious and Bengalis by race. The pre-demt-elect of the Indian National Congress, the Hon. Good Knishika Gold Kn. Hindus of considerable emission, has lent than whight of his supply: too the agitation and intends to put the views of the Bengali unionists before the firtials public, before asterning to Benaries for the next Congress. He arrived a few days ago with numerous packing cases crammed full of valuable medals, rings, ceins, and dainty if minute objects of art gathered among the tends of the Perzanids. On the he was the tembs of the Pyramids. One day he wa the tombs of the Fyramids. One day he was away from the room for some hours, and realised with amexement on his return that all his proions memorials of the Pharachs had vanished. One has has been arristed with a faw of the stolen objects in his possession, but of the great bulk of them there is no trace.

BRITISH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. - We would BRITISH CHAMERS OF COMMERCE.—We would draw the attention of manifecturers and mer-chants to the work of the British Chamber of Commerce of Egypt, which was formed in 1896 with the sole object of assisting British trade in this country. The services of the Chamber, are always at the disposal of any member desiring information on trade matters generally, including the question of apprint-ing suitable agents. As no fee is obarged for soch active, it is obviously in the interests of all British traders here: to become imembers, expecially when it is remembered that the all British traders here to become members, especially when it is remimbered that the annual arbieription is merely the nominal one of £1. THE DAIRA SANIEH CASE.

THE COURT'S DECISION.

As we briefly mentioned in our issue of yesterday, the hearing of the motion brought by the Egrptian Government, to set saids the opposition made by the Princes of the late Khadire Issail's family to the payment by the Dairs Sanish Company of nearly $2,000,000 to be made on the 16th inst., took place as the Cairo Mixed Tribunals, Judge Somerville Tack sitting in Chambers (audiency de Réfers). Meter Molteni, avoest du Gontentieux, appealed for the Government, and, after explaining that claims brought by the Princes against, that Government, moved that the inhibit tion contained in their citátion be removed, as being guither made in virtue of a fleed priving

SIDI GABER STATION.

We are pleased to see that the Railway Administration has at last improved the Sidi Gaber station by erecting a special 3rd class booking office separate from the last and 2nd class offices, and by opening a waiting room exclusively reserved for third-class passengers. We hope that the stationmaster's office will next be enlarged, as at present there is no separate telegraph office, and space is, in consequence, extremely limited.

THE GREEK SCHOOLS.

Early this summer three or four cases of diphtheria took place among the pupils of the boys and girls' schools of the Hellenic Comthe boys and girls' schools of the Hellenic Com-munity of Alexadris. Two little girls did of the disease, and the governing Bard, prompily disinfected the school, and closed, then at an carlier date than usual, with a view to preventing any epidemic breaking out among the children. The Board, we bear, is not atogather pleased with the action of the Municipality, which has installed a public convenience within a few yards of the windows of the Bysy School. It seems to us that no worse site could have been chosen for this attructure. Its presence myst cause considerable discomfort and inconveniency for considerable discoming and inconveniency to a large proportion of the 1,500 popils of the schools, which are close together, and may disseminate disease among the children during for the winter twin at 8 s.m. wodsy by his Beatitude Mgr. Photics L. Orthodox Patriarch, who pronounced the benediction at the close of a short religious service. A large number of well-known members of the Hellenic community were present at the brief but impensive coremony.

HAMBURG AMERIKA LINE,

AMALGAMATION WITH ANGLO-AMERICAN.

We learn from a reliable source that the negotiations between the Anglot American Nile Steamer and Irotal Company and the Hamburg-Amerika Steamship Company have concluded in an amalgamation under terms which see in every way satisfactory to both parties conrmon. It is some time ago since Egypt learnt that as Hamburg-Amerika-Steamship Gempany was desirous of starting a Nile steamer service and at first it was understood that the venture at first it was understood that the venture would be made independently of the companies already established, notably Meses. Thomess Gots and Boo, and the company with which they have just come to serow. Gone agitation was owined and the opioion-was expressed in some quarters that German enterprise abould note he allowed the opportunity of outing those companies which had a prioright. The matter was taken up in London, and questions was asked in Parliamost, but, as is no often the case, no definite answer either estifactory or otherwise was vonchasfed.

Shortly a fixed wards, it was remonant, that

Shortly afterwards it was rumonzed that the conditions under which Nile traffic is the conditions under which 'Nhe traffic' in carried on were about to be changed, and that the change would in all probability there may would be interfager from, entering into com-patition with the displainand companies. Then we leart, that suggistations for the amagana-tion of the Hamburg-Amerika, line with the Anglo-Amerika were peoding, and later that arrangements had been made for meeting between the direction of the two companies at Paris or Bellin. We have more than once purphened the result of these more than once prophesied the result of these nego anticipations now appear to have wall-founded.

It cannot, of course, be said with certainty what will be the result of this amalgamation, but it has certainly prevented any serious competition. The Anglo-American line is wellbut it has certainly prevented any serious competition. The Anglo-American lines is well-known and is yearly making, rapid stric *; attengthead by the valuable support of log. Hamburg-Amerika company, with the concomitant addition to its capital and consequent increase of its fleet, it cannot fail to progress still more rapidly. What with the yearly increase of Nile traffic, there is plenty scope for two well lines as Meszn. Thomas Cook & Son and the new analgamation, and we have very those of several continued in the competition of the competition of the control of the we have every hope of seeing a continued im provement in the already excellent servi without either party suffering from the i

CORPORATION OF WESTERN EGYPT LTD.

The manager in the Oasse reports, in regard to the water supply of the Kuargeh and Dakhla Oasse, as follows:— The underground stress as supply being proticilarly instrumentally, the output at the surface, may be almost indefinitely anguented, provided the walls are markin suitable localities and kept sufficiently for apart to avoid any appreciable redesting, of the hydrostatic pressure. The Oass Isade have one great advantage over those of the of the hyperstatic pressure. The Uses lands that one great advantage over those of the Nile Valley in that they are not dependent of the Nile Walley in that they are not dependent of the Nile Bood. With proper care and attention the output of wells remains constant and in several instances wells sonk thongands of years soo by the Romans and early Egyptians yielding over 500 gallons a minute.

CHINA IN TRANSFORMATION.

BY ARCHIBALD R. COLOUHOUN.

(Written before the Publication of the Anglo

(Written before the Publication of the Angio-Japanese Treaty.)

From the Chinese point of view the Peace of Portament has highly satisfactory. Whatever the less or gain to the two opponents, the Celes-tial Empire at least has come not well, and as shewas at one period of the war-placed in an extremely awkard position in maintaining her noutrality, and as she has throughout seen her-noutrality, and as the has throughout seen her-noutrality. northern provinces the scene of conflict, and her trade obstructed by the unsele condition of affairs, she was naturally eager for a speedy of affairs, she was naturally eager to a specific conclusion. She was not consulted on the question of peace, but the extraordinary lock which through all their blunders seems to come to the aid of the Chinese, has once more saved the situation. Both belligerents have stipulated strictly foughts integrity of the Celertial Burjers without any specially afteristic mority; both intend to peak their influence, quiety, and neither has abandoned her pretension. But the net result is to save face for Chins, to give her a breathing appea, and, to restore the balance of power which gives her a place in the Far East which was at one time in serious jeopardy. She has leat no territory, has entered into no engagements, and she has got broken ap. On the contrary, she appears to be taking a fresh lease of list.

A more unconditional peace would have been less favorable to Chins, in giving the conquer, or too free a hand in dealing with her. Haying hirly outlined the situation externally, we will now turn to fire internal condition.

In education, for instance, they have not only the advantage of knowing the Chinese largoage and character, but they will work ten to fourteen hours a day, for five to the character, the fourteen hours as the character in the fourteen hours as the character in the fourteen must have easy hours and five to ten times as much pay, with a binac, vasia, and probably a hore thrown in. Here we have a striking instance of that strange phenomenon, the conomist inferiority of the Erippan as a product, while he remains or, mparior as a commence. Blueston, must sad will tell, but it will take fine—a generation or two—before it can radically alrer the feature of Chinese life. The Chinese, even where denoted and end ightened, is address over the contracted and enlightened, is address that the first and inequalities, of its own systems, and his observation teaches him that no feature of government is parfect. He untally thinks of government is perfect. Then the opportunity of the Treasury will arrive, and at this point twould be well if this country, by way of come more vindicat-ing her position in the Far Rate, coult regu-tiate a loan which would give China the means to pub the finances straight. The accurity is ample. China is only on the fringe of her recourses are tross as yet.

Of all the developments, however, the m or at the developments, nowever, the most interesting one is that which affects the rail-ways. The concession period, during which China was in the position of a man continually forced to make bargains against his will, is over. The period of construction has set in criously.

At the present date there is all a actually composing Poking with Central China at Hankow, on the Upper Yangita. This is the grand trunk lims of China, and a temporary bridge has been constructed over the Yellow River. This is a purely Belgian line, the corression having been obtained, at a time when the fact that the contract of the con of the international insignificance was her passport to Chinese favor. The Tientsin-Chinkiang line of the international reagentiesnee of Beignum was her passport to Ohinese favor:

The Tentin-Chinking line will connect Psking and the Gulf, of Chihili, with the Lower Xangton Provinces, running north and south, so that it will replace the cld artery of trade, the Imperial Camil, long fallen into disease. This is a magnificent line, running through some of the richest district, and connecting two important terprin. This line is under the ausgioes of an Anglo-German combination, which divides the lines the German's corporation taking the northern and, the British the southern section. So far the work of countraction is still in abeyance, and considerations have arisen which militate against it, since it is possible that the line might divart the northern Infinite to German port of Kiscokou, in connection, with the Shanking of Kiaochow, in connection with the Shan Railways now being constructed. Gern ermany has even gone further than this b and limiting the authori'y of the Chi Government over its own efficials.

A very important line is the one onder the anapies of the British Corposition renning from Shanghai to Nanking, which is now under construction. This concession provides for neighbouring line, bone of which are, at present commenced. The Chince Government raised a loan for the line through the corporation, who are responsible for construction, who are responsible for construction. This line, connecting a great central point, the east capital of Southern China, with the flourishing travity port of Shanghai, will apply ably prove one of the most profitable in China.

The Peking Syndicate does not repre The Paking Syndiate does not represent only railway-enterprise, being largely cocepied with mineral conceptions, especially, the great coalledds of Shansi, from which they are work ing a small line of ghty miles in length to the Wei River. They have other, branch hines which are now pooled with. Those of the Bertitab Corporation, and it also understood that these two British bodies have either arranged or are about to do so, for a further amalgamation with the French syndiates concerned with the propose! Yunnan-Sirchuran lines. The line from the coats of fougling to Yunnian fa, however, is being built by the Tonking Government under guarantee from France. It has been recedify reported that the Peking Syndian. been recently reported that the Peking Sy-cate had sold their railway interests to Chinese Government, but what seems to actually the case is that the syndicate Belgian corporation, which controls the Peking-Hankow line. They have obtained from the Chinese Government a guarantee for constr Chinese Government, a guarantee for construc-tion expenses and heterest at five per cent, holding the line and working it meantimes till the whole sum is paid off in instalments which may cover a period of thirty years. They also reserve the neise of the line for their mineral trailine at rates which may not be raised against them. This is an improvement on the original arrangement, by which the lims had to be built at the syndicates risk and worked for arty years, when it would lapse to the Chinese Government without payment, but the transacwill ultithe exploitation of Ohina. It was granted to promote American Friendship, the syndicists numbering some of the best known American, outstalled, and Gress British, and offered that the first step (owards a British-American development in China. After a brilliant start interest appeared to flug, and by degrees Belgian copicit, abovebed the shares until the Belgian copicit, abovebed the shares until the line became practically controlled by Belgians as the majority of shareholders. The cross-soin specially provided for the non-transfer of the line to any other nationality, and the conduct of Shung, the Ohiness Director-General of Rullways, cause in for some well-starend criticisms. Rullways, came in for some well-earned critica on this point, but the action of the Americ syndicate was even more open to object, The Chinese Government threatened to can the contract, and not being strong enough and an extreme measure set obtrastion raise Western prestige.

The lattet important railway project is that to connect Kwokoo (opposite Hong Kong) with Canton, a roate which will certainly be a very beay one with the trade of this populous region. It will probably be built with British and Chinese capital, under Government garantee. Other projects are for the Paking-Rajan line, which was reported by an "gravitases" a couple of years ago to be already under construction by Rausis from the Kalgan and. The Chinese announce that they will build it themselves, own and work it entirely without foreign help, and although British-engineers are septical it is quite possible that they may do it. There are few things the Chinese cannot do if they see a chance of profit, and, salivay construction will offer them freed opportunities for their favorities were necessarily and and the proposities for their favorities were necessarily and a support the control of themselves a chance of profit, and, salivay construction will offer them freed opportunities for their favorities were necessarily the control of themselves and the control of themselves and the control of themselves and the control of themselves.

since regretted her weakness in the concession period and has begun to contemplate the no-quisition of all the railways by degrees. Already a large loan. for the purchase of the Paking-Hankow line is talked about. China is not, Hankow line is talked about China is not, purhaps, very sound in her schemen, which untilly involve borrowing from one, foreigner to be per mother, and at scortistant rates of surerast. Ear counter is the policy of constructing fresh lines with Softwarmont guarantee and the partial help of foreign capitals, and if sort ed on reasonable lines, should become vary valiable. The attended printing in lines are many of them magnificently distanted, and have, of course, taken the pick of the country, but they have been hampered by Chinese obstruction, by a curious lack of Braight enterprise, and by the fact that the business of obtaining with a view to selling at a pifelt these railway concessions, has been a more prominent feature. wise to selling at a prifit these railway con-cessions, his been a mive prominent feature. than any genuine attempt at nailway construc-tion and the development of trade routes. The Belgiais have made a good enough thing of their property. The British Legation has been frequently in the position of working for con-cusions which were not utilized, and gradually be sume more German, Belgian, or French than British. Divided constils, polic sy, and inter-sets have had ay much to do with the slowmest of railway progress as the obstruction and bold faith of Chinese officialdom.

Although the time has gone past when one Although the time has gone past wholf one might have hoped to see Grass. Britain taking a lead in railway suberpine in China, yet it is most even now to late for her to play an important part. It is regretable that her attempt atco-operation with Germany in the Tenthirolinizing line is proving so unasidisatory, and a far more hopeful sign is the proposed unalg mution with French interests in the most operation and a far more may prove a valandle consuprojes to the activity of Germany in the Yang-tse Valley. Valley.

The northern provinces of Manchuris, both as regards railway and mining enterprise, will be the great field for Japanese activity, but her abortage of capital will lead her to rely on loreign aid for which, be it noted, ahe is preparing the way in her own country by alteration in the legislation. In Chine proper Japan will interfere directly as little as possible, confining herself to helping forward the organisation of the Army and Navy, obtaining notitions as advisers wherever obtaining positions as advisers wherever possible to the Provincial Viceroys, and

His past history and multitary talent so much depends, and who aswed the Dynasky at a critical point, is keeping very quiet. His past history and his many enemies make his position precarious. In the Government personnel the most remarkable, figure is, or course, that of Sir Robert Hart. Time was when the presence of a Rritish Inspector General of Gustoms was considered a guaratee for British and political welfare in the Par East. We have learn to know Sir Robert's as the faithful servant of the Chinese Government and nothing more, but his age and increasing feobleness naturally acones psecilations as to the future.
